Crossing the Lines for Love

Our scriptures this Sunday once again minister to our aching and hurting hearts and souls and we all deal with a new surge of the Pandemic here and suffer with the people of Ukraine, as well as the challenges and pain of so many in our communities and the world.

Jesus, in John 13 gives us his great commandment “that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

In Acts 11, we continue to follow the unfolding of the story of the followers of Jesus bringing his love and salvation into the world. Peter is criticized for affiliating with the “uncircumcised”. Clearly the Holy Spirit was upon Peter and those he ministered to, bringing them love, salvation, and a relationship with Jesus Christ. This history is showing us that the love of God in Christ is for all the world; that division of race, country, culture, and even religious background do not matter in the sense that we are all healed and saved by God’s love. God’s love can take us out of ourselves, our own problems and woes, and give us the freedom to love and minister to others in need. By doing so, we are helped immensely at the same time. Rejoice my friends and be glad for God loves you and blesses you today! Please pray for us as we do for you.

Please join us today at 4 p.m. Eastern Time for a time of meditation and prayer. and each Sunday at 4 p.m. for our live service on Facebook, or watch it later on Facebook or our website. Send us your prayer requests. We bless you!

+David
